Almost everyone had seen a dream . I had also seen a horrible dream . Once I saw a dream that when I am coming home from school in a bicycle that time I am passing through a forest then I saw a shining light inside the forest so I stopped my bicycle and ran to that place there I saw a shining door which is very beautiful . Its color is like rainbow so I thought I must go into it . I thought that there must be a very beautiful place inside it but when I entered that door I came to know that the place which I am thinking a heaven is a hell . There are so many demons some are walking on fire and some are flying in air. After some time some demon came closer to me . I thought that they will eat me but they don't eat me infact they take care of me but after some time they took me near the lava they told me to jump into it or they will force me to do so . Then I came near to the lava then one demon started saying to me . Wake up wakeup otherwise I will be late for school then I woke up suddenly and saw that my father is saying that to me then I thanked god that this is not true.
