

The Real Spirits

One day my grandmother is telling a story about the spirits. It is a true story. There are many years ago. In an old cottage there are some spirits are there. The cottage is located in the beautiful village. In village there are many good peoples are lives. The peoples are very poor but her children are very talented. In nights before 12 p.m there are no house door is opened. Every house door is closed because in the nights before 12 p.m in the old cottage there are lived some spirit. When the spirit sees some one then they kill those peoples. One day a children passing through the cottage, He doesn't know about the spirit and then suddenly a horrible sound come the cottage. Then the child look back and he afraid to she the spirit and then the spirit kills the child and throw him in the well of the cottage. Many days gone away people started not going threw that way.
