

WHEN I OPENED MY EYES!

Once I had a dream. In dream I had seen that I and my family was celebrating Saraswati puja.

There was work going on. My aunt was making food, and grandpa was plucking flowers. I and my mother were decorating the house. After plucking flowers my grand pa was decorating Saraswati's statue. We also called our neighbours to enjoy the puja. We kept a feast and I had a new dress also. There were many beautiful flowers given to MaaSaraswati.

We were serving food to our neighbourhood who had came to attend the puja. I prayed to goddess to bless me with knowledge. we also served food and gave clothes to the beggers.

After completed the puja we all family members sat together to eat food. My aunt was asking me that may I give you foodany more and I was saying no and I was really shouting in the morning. When I opened my eyes I saw my family looking me amazingly.
